	5. To conduct regular review of library collection so that messages that threaten National Security will not be disseminated through library collection.	In the second semester of the 2022-2023 academic year, the NSE Committee and the heads of subject departments have been requested to select books deemed unsuitable for student borrowing. Following the established procedure, a batch of books has been withdrawn. Additionally, another batch of books has been withdrawn based on the deaccessioning situation in the Hong Kong Public Libraries, ensuring that the library collection aligns with the national security requirements.	Students were not able to assess any books with messages that threatened national security.
	6. To enable staff to know relevant information related with National Security Law and Education during staff meetings or through messages in E-class.	The staff were reminded to take note of the relevant documents in a staff meeting.	The staff were aware of the implementation of the national security education and professional code. The staff will be provided with an update on the relevant information about NSE through various means.
	7. To keep reviewing the mechanism and procedures for management of school premises (including the hiring out of school facilities) to ensure the school activities will not involve acts or activities that endanger national security.	All organizations renting any venues at school must sign a consent form to ensure that the activities organized by them comply with national security requirements. The school is not responsible for any activities organized by them that endanger national security.	Acts or activities that may endanger national security were avoided.

Area	Measure(s)	Implementation Situation	Effectiveness and Reflection
		The background of the organizations and the nature of the activities were looked into before allowing them to rent the venues at school.
Staff Professional Development and Staff Management	1. To inform teachers about and to encourage them to join seminars/ workshops organized by EDB on Basic Laws and National Security Education.	The guidelines for professional development regarding Basic Laws and NSE were disseminated.  Information on seminars related to NSE was released by teachers in charge of staff development regularly.	More courses about NSE can be recommended to the staff.
	2. To uphold teachers' professional ethics, teachers are reminded about the professional ethics as set in the Code for Education Profession and relevant policies listed in teachers' handbook including those for safeguarding National Security in the first staff meeting every academic year.	The code for the education profession from the EDB was included in the Staff Handbook. The main points were highlighted in a staff meeting and they were reminded to uphold teachers' professional ethics.	The staff were aware of the importance of the national security education and the professional ethics.
Learning and Teaching	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Teachers infuse elements of National Education through their respective formal curriculum and life-wide learning activities.</li> <li>2. Learning and Teaching	post-examination periods for promoting Chinese Culture and National Identity. 4. Chinese Culture Week will be held to promote Chinese culture.	Chinese Culture Week was held to promote Chinese Culture from 21/3/2023 to 23/3/2023	Chinese culture and national identity were strengthened through the activities organized. The Chinese Culture Week was of a great success. There are different stalls and activities in the period. The atmosphere was good. With the workload considered, the scale of activities could be tuned down.
	5. Class Teaching, textbooks, learning materials and assessments are closely monitored for their appropriateness and quality. 6. Teachers should keep a full set of worksheets, test papers and examination papers for at least two years for inspection if necessary.	The appropriateness and quality of class teaching, textbooks, learning materials and assessment are closely monitored by subject coordinators. The softcopy of the learning materials including the worksheets, test papers and examination papers were preserved for inspection.	Textbooks, learning materials and assessments that may pose threats to national security have been removed. The relevant materials were stored on the school's drive.
Student Guidance, Discipline and Support	1. To refine school-based guidelines of handling incidents/ students involving political propaganda in schools with reference to previous experience and stakeholders' feedback. 2. To cultivate in students the civic duties and virtues as good citizens through talks or Recognition Scheme.	The school-based guidelines were further refined. The school incorporated regular National Security Education School Premises Inspections, ensuring that the school environment did not involve any content that endangered national security. This included various publications and leaflets that might pose a threat.	The staff demonstrated solid understanding of these guidelines. The regular inspections were evidently effective in fostering a secure school environment. The board exhibitions and talks increased opportunities for students to comprehend the importance of national security.

		The school regularly held display board exhibitions to enhance students' understanding of the nation and the importance of national security. The school also organized talks to bolster students' identity recognition. These initiatives were part of our effort to cultivate in students the civic duties and virtues as good citizens.	The school could arrange a wider variety of talks to further enrich students' understanding and engagement with national security and civic responsibilities.
Home-school Cooperation	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. To provide parents with information related to National Security Education through the talks and/or parents' letters at appropriate times.</li> <li>2. To encourage the PTA to organize activities related to National Security Education at various scales.</li> </ol>	A visit to the Palace Museum was arranged and well received. More than one hundred parents and students joined the activity.	A new strategy could be drawn up to attract parents to sign up for the talks or activities about national security education. Nonetheless, they are very busy with their work. There can be more promotions through the eClass.
